SOAP 42nd Annual Meeting

Join us in San Antonio!

Dear Friends,

The SOAP Program Committee, Meeting Host Manny Vallejo, Executive Director Michele Campbell, and I invite you to attend the 42nd Annual SOAP Meeting in San Antonio, Texas, May 12-16, 2010. 'Excited about the program' is an understatement as this promises to be one of the best SOAP meetings to date. The program is packed with sessions that include old favorites as well as new sessions that feature short clinically-relevant lectures. The format is expected to maximize value for those attending the annual meeting.

'Emerging Technologies in Obstetric Anesthesia' was chosen as this year's theme, and you will be treated to innovative technology-related sessions interspersed throughout the program.

Plan on arriving on Tuesday to partake in two workshops planned for Wednesday, May 12, 2010 which were specifically coordinated to allow attendance at both. Jose Carvalho and Maya Suresh organized state of the art Ultrasound and Difficult Airway workshops, respectively. Enrollment in the ultrasound workshop will include access to a website developed specifically to enhance your educational experience, particularly if visited before coming to the meeting. Both workshops will include some of the most technologically advanced equipment available.

The program also includes 22 oral presentations in four sessions that feature the best research being conducted in obstetric anesthesia, 2 pro/con debates (Practicality of Ultrasound and Optimal Regional Anesthetic during Cesarean Delivery for Morbid Obesity), 3 panels of leading experts presenting 11 clinically relevant lectures, 2 poster presentation sessions, a PBLD Breakfast with the Expert Session discussing 2 cases with complex medical problems, a session featuring the best cases of the year, a resident forum, and 7 lectures by renowned speakers including Steve Shafer (Mathematical Modeling), Alex Hannenberg (ASA President Address), Michael Pinsky (Perioperative Technology), George Saade (Obstetric Update), Jill Mhyre (Ostheimer "What's New in Ob Anesthesia"), Cynthia Wong (Publishing Manuscripts) and Susan Palmer (Hehre Lecturer). We are also honored to present the Society's Distinguished Service Award to a very worthy recipient, Mark Rosen.

The meeting also includes an exciting social program featuring a welcome reception, a wellness walk, an awards banquet at the beautiful Institute of Texan Cultures center, and a free afternoon for site seeing, shopping, exercising, or relaxing.

Please mark your calendars now because this is one Annual SOAP meeting you don't want to miss! We look forward to seeing you in beautiful San Antonio in the spring of 2010.

Yours Sincerely,

Robert D'Angelo, M.D.

PBLD Breakfast with the Experts

The Society for Obstetric Anesthesia and Perinatology designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Mission of SOAP Program Committee

The mission of the Society's Program Committee is to provide anesthesiologists, obstetricians, and other physicians and members of related allied health specialties with the knowledge that will reinforce past learning as well as disseminate new concepts, practices, and skills involving anesthesia and analgesia for the pregnant woman.

Target Audience

The SOAP 42nd Annual Meeting is intended for anesthesiologists, obstetricians, neonatologists, obstetric medicine specialists, maternal-fetal medicine specialists, residents, fellows and medical students. The Society supports the attendance by associate members in the educational sessions of the annual meeting. The program is generated from member requests and an assessment of need by the program committee. Attendance at this meeting does not guarantee competency or proficiency in the performance of any procedures which may be discussed or taught during the course.

Educational Format

CME activities may include the following formats: plenary sessions, debates, lectures, poster discussions, oral abstracts, problem-based learning, and skill-set workshops.

Participation in the SOAP 42nd Annual Meeting

Attendance shall be open to all health practitioners, provided that they have registered for the meeting. CME credit will only be offered to M.D.s, D.O.s or equivalent. A completed Physician Verification of Attendance form must be turned in to SOAP at the conclusion of the meeting. The form will be available on-site.

Special Needs Statement

The Society for Obstetric Anesthesia and Perinatology is committed to making its activities accessible to all individuals and fully complies with the legal requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act and the rules and regulations thereof. If you are in need of an accommodation, please do not hesitate to call the SOAP office at (847) 825-6472 and/or submit a description of your needs in writing to soap@asahq.org.

Program Objectives

Overall Meeting Objectives

At the end of the meeting, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Practice techniques through hands-on demonstrations that can be incorporated into clinical practice to improve patient care
- ◆ Identify the most recent and best peer reviewed obstetric, obstetric anesthesia, and perinatology research
- ◆ Identify the impact the genetics determinants of pain perception and chronic pain may have on pain management following delivery
- ◆ Recognize the role of mathematical modeling in obstetric anesthesia research
- ◆ Identify the most advanced technologies that can be incorporated into the preoperative, intraoperative, and postoperative care of the parturient
- ◆ Develop anesthetic plans to treat a variety of complex medical problems in patients presenting for delivery

Difficult Airway Workshop

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Learn how to use a variety of devices to facilitate tracheal intubation through hands on demonstrations
- ◆ Better appreciate the clinical situations most appropriate for the use of each life saving device.

Ultrasound Workshop

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Understand the physics behind and image interpretation of ultrasound
- ◆ Learn techniques for identification of vascular structures and the lumbar spine
- ◆ Learn techniques to facilitate placement of intravascular and central line catheters as well as epidural, spinal, CSE, ilioinguinal, iliohypogastric, and transversus abdominis plane blocks through hands-on demonstrations

Gertie Marx Research Competition

At the end of the session, participants will:

- ◆ Become familiar with the most recent and best peer reviewed obstetric anesthesia research from around the world. (Presentations in this session will be by Fellows)

Research Panel

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Understand the mechanism, incidence, and potential impact of chronic pain following a cesarean delivery
- ◆ Learn how mathematical models can be utilized to study the pain and progress of labor
- ◆ Learn the genetic determinants of pain perception and the role that genetics may play in the future of pain management

Special Research Lecture

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Better understand the role of mathematical modeling in obstetric anesthesia research
- ◆ Design novel research studies utilizing mathematical modeling

Perioperative Technology Lecture

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify the utility and limitations of non and minimally invasive hemodynamic monitoring
- ◆ Determine what changes could be incorporated into clinical practice to improve perioperative monitoring

What's New in Obstetrics

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Assess the evidence for new concepts in the field of general obstetrics and maternal fetal medicine from the calendar year 2009-2010.
- ◆ Describe the impact of new obstetric research on the clinical practices of obstetric anesthesia, obstetric medicine, and neonatology.

Ultrasound Debate

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify the role and limitations of ultrasound for identification of the lumbar spine in clinical practice

Clinical Update

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify the incidence of serious complications in obstetric anesthesia
- ◆ Evaluate the most recent evidence supporting the use of phenylephrine infusions during cesarean delivery
- ◆ Appreciate an evidence based approach to the treatment of post dural puncture headache

Gerald W. Ostheimer Lecture

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Evaluate the level of evidence for new preventative and therapeutic strategies in the fields of maternal fetal medicine, perinatology, and obstetric anesthesia
- ◆ Describe and apply state of the art obstetric analgesia and anesthesia
- ◆ Identify novel concepts in areas of research relevant to understanding and management of pregnancy related disorders, neonatal outcomes, and obstetric anesthesia

Regional Anesthesia Debate

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify the advantages and disadvantages of epidural, spinal, and CSE techniques in the morbidly obese patient requiring cesarean delivery
- ◆ Incorporate algorithms that apply each technique into clinical practice

PBLD Breakfast with the Experts

After attending this problem based learning session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Interpret the problems associated with two obstetric patients with preexisting complex medical problems, a laboring patient with steroid dependent sarcoidosis at 25 weeks gestational age and a patient with eclampsia that develops a cardiac arrest
- ◆ Organize anesthetic plans for the patient with severe pulmonary compromise
- ◆ Organize anesthetic plans for a perimortem cesarean delivery
- ◆ Review and evaluate how the anesthetic plan changes based on changing clinical situations

PEARLS and Pitfall Session

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify recommendations for implementation of an electronic obstetric anesthesia medical record
- ◆ Learn the most recent evidence supporting the utilization of TEG in ob anesthesia
- ◆ Appreciate the role of Intralipid in the most recent ACLS protocols
- ◆ Learn protocols for the utilization of remifentanil PCA in clinical practice
- ◆ Appreciate guidelines for postoperative monitoring of patient's with obstructive sleep apnea.

Poster Review:

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify the most recent peer reviewed research in obstetrics, obstetric anesthesia, and perinatology.

Oral Presentation Sessions

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify the most recent peer reviewed research in obstetrics, obstetric anesthesia, and perinatology presented by the researchers.

Fred Hehre Lecture

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify obstetric anesthesia's contribution to medical ethics
- ◆ Identify obstetric anesthesia's contribution to maternal safety
- ◆ Identify the impact of altitude on the physiologic changes of pregnancy

Best Paper Presentations

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify the most recent and best peer reviewed research in obstetrics, obstetric anesthesia, and perinatology. (Presentations in this session will be by Attending Anesthesiologists).

Best Case Reports Session

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Organize anesthetic plans to treat a variety of complex and rare diseases and obstetric anesthetic complications.

Optional Tours & Excursions

RSVP on the registration form for these tours. Please note that if minimum numbers for tours are not met by April 23, 2010, the tour may be cancelled and tour registrants will be notified of cancellation.
