

SOAP & OpenAnesthesia present:

OB Anesthesia Fellows Virtual Grand Rounds

8th
October
2014

Michael G. Richardson, MD

Associate Professor of Anesthesiology
Director, OB Anesthesiology Fellowship Program
Vanderbilt University School of Medicine

Bridging the Language & Cultural Chasm: Low Hanging Quality Improvement Fruit

Linguistic and cultural differences are significant sources of healthcare quality and safety disparities in a growing population of immigrants throughout the US, yet physicians receive little education and training in these areas. The aim of this webinar is to fully address the medical, legal, and ethical impetus for developing competence in interacting with limited English proficiency patients, and to outline best practices in navigating cross-cultural medical encounters.
